INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Holbein Associates, Inc. Dallas, Texas

We have audited the statements of financial condition of Holbein Associates, Inc. (an S Corporation), as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of income, changes in shareholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Holbein Associates, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental information section is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplemental information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Company Activities

Holbein Associates, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated March 13, 1986, under the laws of the State of Texas. Principal business activities consist of providing institutional clients with asset consulting services.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Commissions Income

Commissions income is recognized on a trade date basis.

Fees and Commissions Receivable

Fees, brokerage, and commissions receivable are generally received within ten days of month end.

Federal Income Tax

The Company has elected "S" Corporation status for federal income tax purposes. All income is taxed directly to the shareholder and no provision is made for federal income tax expense on the Company's financial statements.

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from five to seven years.

Reserve for Doubtful Accounts

The Company's policy is to expense fees receivable of doubtful collectibility, therefore, no reserve is provided.

Investment

The investment consists of shares of NASDAQ which are currently restricted. The investment is stated at cost, which does not exceed the estimated net realizable value.

NOTE B - NET CAPITAL

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of rule 15(a)(3-1) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital as defined under such provisions. Net capital will fluctuate on a daily basis. The Company had net capital of $50,441 and $55,789 at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

NOTE C - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company leased its principal office in Dallas, Texas under an operating lease that expired September 30, 2001. In October 2001, the Company moved to a new location under an operating lease that expires September 30, 2006. Monthly rentals of $6,839 continue through the 36th month of the agreement then increase to $7,165 through the remaining 24 months. As of December 31, 2001, future minimum lease commitments under the new non-cancelable operating lease are as follows:

2002	$82,068
2003	$82,068
2004	$83,045
2005	$85,976
2006	$64,482

Office lease expenses of $60,941 and $52,976 are included in office expense for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Certified PubliINBEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNALACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Holbein Associates, Inc. Dallas, Texas

In planning and performing our audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Holbein Associates, Inc. (the Company), for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
- 2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
- 3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001 and 2000, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
